Destination Spotlight: The White Elephant

Look no further for the perfect venue for any occasion, including weddings! Named one of the World's Best Hotels in the U.S. by Condé Nast Traveler, The White Elephant hotel stretches alongside the Nantucket Harbor within walking distance from the historical town. Everything about this hotel- the architecture, service, cuisine, and breathtakingly stunning view- will have your heart throbbing for joy in no time.

During the spring and fall, feel free to reserve the entire property so all of your guests can enjoy the full attention of the staff and an intimate ceremony with everyone you cherish. Sixty-four room, suits and cottages will be reserved for guests from two to three days. The White Elephant is more than happy to host the whole event from the rehearsal dinner to Sunday brunch, willing to go above and beyond to make your day the most special day.

If you prefer a small and intimate wedding celebration look no more. Say your "I Do's" with sixty of your closest friends and family on the beautiful lawn overlooking the Nantucket Harbor with cocktails on the lawn and dinner served under the heated awning of the sundeck. Music and dancing will take place in the sunroom. If you wish to have up to 150 guests - enjoy a beautiful harbor side wedding with cocktails on the lawn and dinner and dancing on the terrace. Either way you wish feel free to get funky on the dance floor with as many as six amplification systems. This venue is simply adorable and very romantic; the perfect location for your wedding.
